

Berlinagenten is Global Winner at Luxury Travel Guide Awards 2016

Following our honouring as Germany's best Culinary Experience by the Luxury Travel Guide earlier this year, we're more than thrilled to announce our Gastro-Rallye concept was named global winner in the category Culinary Experience of the Year by the LTG award team on Monday the 7th of November 2016.

At the award ceremony in London's Radisson Blu Edwardian Bloomsbury Street, nominees from around the globe competed in 30 categories to discover the best accommodations, restaurants, destinations, wedding specialists & tour companies in the world. The black tie event was moderated by guest judge and Travel Channel host Shane Green and included Sash&Fritz premium vodka from Berlin, which we took to be a good omen for winning the award ceremony.

Bringing his ravishing blue glittering blazer to full bloom, Henrik's appearance on stage was sure to steal the show. He thanked the award team and announced it wouldn't have been possible without his amazing team, restaurant partners and guides, but also that he wasn't completely surprised by winning, since he already received lots of international press coverage and A-celebs signing up for his lifestyle tours in Berlin.

The award is also a recognition for the emerging culinary scene of Berlin, which now officially ranks one of the best gourmet destinations in the world. The scene has come a long way and the award price also confirms that the Gastro-Rallye is unique, creative and exclusive way to discover the food scene. Many gourmets and bon vivants from all over the world are convinced by the tour concept and the choice of restaurants. We have conducted more than 2,000 international journalists and travel agents at the Gastro-Rallye, and the culinary scene of Berlin has gained a lot of press. Berlin is ready for the world's most demanding gourmets, jet setters and gourmets and we are sure that Berlin will get even more attention in the coming years with our gourmet tour. Berlinagenten is already planning the launch of the successful Gastro-Rallye concept on a global scale. Stay tuned for more info.
